

Savannah Mad Lib

How to Play:

1. Don't peek at the story just yet. You'll spoil the surprise!
2. First, creatively complete the list of words below.
3. Then, transfer your words to the blanks in the story.
4. Sign your name at the bottom.
5. Now read the lib, laugh out loud, and share it with others!

Word Tips

Adjective | Describe something!
[crazy, annoying, fluffy, cracked]

Verb | Describe an action
[start, change, throw]

Past Tense Verb | Already happened
[multiplied, hopped, swam]

Verb Ending in "ing" | Happening now!
[skating, kicking, running]

Fill in your word choices:

ADJECTIVE

ADJECTIVE

VERB-ING

ADJECTIVE

ADJECTIVE

ADJECTIVE

PAST TENSE VERB

PAST TENSE VERB

ADJECTIVE

ADJECTIVE

TYPE OF CLOTHING

PAST TENSE VERB

BODY PART

SOUND

VERB

PAST TENSE VERB

VERB

ITEM

YES/NO

ITEM

PAST TENSE VERB

VISIT
SAVANNAH

EST.  1733

MY SPOOKY, SAVANNAH GHOST STORY

It was a _____ and _____ night in Savannah, Georgia. I was _____ through Forsyth Park when I noticed a _____ house with _____ windows. As I walked past the house,
I heard a _____ voice saying, "Help me! Help me!" I decided to get a closer look. I _____ up the steps and _____ on the door. The door opened and I saw a _____, _____ ghost wearing a
_____. I screamed and _____ the ghost in the _____. He yelled, "_____!"
I tried to _____, but the ghost _____.
I asked the ghost, "May I _____ your
_____?" The ghost said, "_____."
I grabbed the _____ and ran outside.
I never _____ a ghost in Savannah again!

This Savannah Mad Lib was completed by: _____

REALLY COOL KID

